NOTICE OF UNANTICIPATED LIMITED-DUTIES APPOINTMENT

The Faculty of Education has unanticipated Limited-Duties (Part-Time) appointment to teach the following course during the Fall period (September 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017):

PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS:

Fall ONLINE (September 1, 2017-December 31, 2017):
Note: A – Fall Term

GRADEDUC 9496A-651 Understanding Research Methods for Educational Practice (Job Ref# 10216)

The calendar description of courses offered in our MPEd Field of Early Childhood Education in the Graduate Education Programs is available at http://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/program/mped/ece.html.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must have graduate qualifications in Curriculum Studies with an emphasis on an aspect of early years education, demonstrated research capabilities in curriculum in the early years (birth to age 8), and teaching experience in K-3 or other early childhood education settings. Previous graduate teaching is an asset. The successful applicant will bring academic and professional strength and collaborative abilities to the position. Familiarity with the ways in which new technologies are changing teaching is essential. These include the role of the internet, of relevant computer programs and of hand held devices.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. In submitting your application, candidates should attach a letter of application addressed to Dean Vicki Schwean specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.
In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Please note offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

For more information about this position, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The closing date for applications is July 9, 2017.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.

Note: Recent Western graduates who are foreign nationals may be eligible to work on campus. Please refer to the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website under Post-Graduation Employment at http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp.
