

A book on Canadian education in Japanese language, a work of Japanese Association for Canadian Education Studies (JACES)

Education in Canada at the Dawn of the 21st Century

(Original title: Kanada no Kyouiku II: 21seiki ni Habataku Kanada no Kyouiku)

Edited by Kobayashi, J., Sekiguchi, R., Namita, K., Ogawa, Y. and Mizoue, C.

Published by Toshindo Ltd., Tokyo, 2003

I – Educational Reform in 1990’s – Centered on Primary and Secondary Education

1. Education in British Columbia: (Ogawa, Y)

B. C. as the No. 3 province in Canada; Educational Expansion and Reform; Trends toward Equalization; Immigrants and Education in the 21st Century

2. Education in Alberta: (Sekiguchi,R., Okabe,A., Kurihara,K.)

Overview of the Educational System; Transition from Secondary to Vocational and Post Secondary Education; Education, Open to Society; Formation and Recruitment of Teachers

3. Education in Ontario: (Hirata, J., Sakamoto, M., Narushima, M.)

Educational Policies and System; Curriculum Reform in Secondary Education; Learning Assessment and School Accountability; Certification and Recruitment of Teachers

4. Education in Quebec: (Kobayashi, J.)

Transformation of the French Legacy in the Educational System; Curriculum Reform for the 21st Century; Major Strategies for the Implementation of the New Curriculum

II – Major Issues in Education in Canada

1. Trends in Educational Administration: (Narushima, T., Kobayashi, J., Hirata, J.)

Overview of Educational Administration Systems; The Constitution and Educational Administration; The Constitution and School Boards Issues; New Trends in School Management

2. Expansion of Learning Opportunities for Adults (Mizoue,C., Narushima, M.)

Building-up a Life-long Learning Society in Canada; Policies for Colleges; Policies for Museums

3. Characteristics of Language Instruction in Canada (Namita, K., Shinada, M., Kazama, K.)

Background of Language Instruction; Language Instruction in Canada

4. Information Technology and Education (Sekiguchi, R., Okabe, A., Namita, Y.)

Policies on IT for Primary Schools in B. C.; IT Courses in Senior High School Curriculum in Alberta; Library, Integrated in Instruction: IT in School Activities; IT as Transformer of School Education

5. Multicultural Issues and Education (Kodama, N., Tokita, T.)

Multicultural Issues and Education in Ontario; Quebec’s Challenge to Coordinate French Language Survival and Multicultural/Multilingual Facts; Official Language Instruction for Adult Immigrants

6. Federal Policies on Education for First Nations (Hirose, K., Shimomura, T.)

Legal Systems of Education for First Nations; Educational Autonomy of First Nations under the Treaties; Educational Administration under the Gathering Strengths – Canada’s Aboriginal Action Plan

Appendix: Statistics; Chronology (1985 – 2002)

Special Contribution: David Kilgour, “The Opportunities and Challenges of International Education: A Canadian Approach”, translated into Japanese by Miyamoto, K.

Other Collaborator: Mizuhata, J

This publication is the recipient of ‘Canadian Prime Minister’s Award for Publishing, 2002 – 2003’.