

Practicum Self-Assessment

(To be completed by students at the beginning and end of each practicum)

Name of Student:

Practicum Placement:

Practicum Course #:

Date of Initial Self-Assessment Date of Final Self-Assessment

None Very Little	Some/Somewhat	Confident-But Still Learning	Ready for Internship	Not Applicable
1	2	3	4	5

Description	Initial Self-Assessment	Final Self-Assessment
Comfort level/confidence in the therapist role
Knowledge of therapeutic techniques
Application of therapeutic techniques
Diagnostic skills
My appreciation of variations in clinical presentations
Knowledge of ethical issues/jurisprudence
Case conceptualization
Report Writing
Understanding how to use my own emotional experience to better understand my clients
Empathic listening and responding
Understanding of theory
Application of theory to the therapy process
Ability to foster quality, collaborative relationship with patients
Ability to install hope and positive expectations in patients
Appreciation of the roles that psychologists can play in the broader health care, social service, and/or policy arenas
Other:
Other:		