Program Title: International Education M.PEd.
Program Type: Professional Program

Instructor: Marianne Larsen
E-mail; office phone number: mlarsen@uwo.ca; ext. 80164
Office location; office hours: 1122; office hours by appointment

Contact Policy
Please contact me using the message system through OWL. Students may expect a response within 48 hours, not including weekends. Instructor meetings are by-appointment, and in virtually any mode of students’ preference. Please contact me by email to book an appointment. See the FAQ section on OWL for answers to general questions about the course and assignments.

Calendar Description
This course explores a number of methods to conducting field-based research in intercultural contexts, such as: program evaluation, action research, critical reflective practice and cross-cultural/global ethnographic techniques and modes of inquiry.

Outcomes:
By the end of this course, students will be able to:

| 1. Depth & Breadth of Knowledge | Develop a breadth of knowledge about the foundational knowledge, theoretical and methodological approaches, multiple perspectives, key issues and current debates about various qualitative and quantitative research methods that can be applied to international, inter-cultural, and comparative contexts. |
| 2. Research & Scholarship | Understand a range of diverse theoretical and methodological approaches with a view to understanding research design and implications for practice in international and intercultural research. |
| 3. Application of Knowledge | Demonstrate the ability to synthesize, evaluate and apply existing bodies of knowledge, including knowledge about the research process and knowledge mobilization/dissemination, in the study of their chosen research problem of practice. Apply understanding of relevant literature, theoretical and methodological approaches associated with their chosen field of study in order to make informed critical judgements about the debates and issues in the scholarly literature and field of practice. |
| Communication Skills | Demonstrate ability to analyze data and communicate knowledge and understanding of their specialization area using the most appropriate genres for different audiences.
Develop a range of oral and written skills to convey understanding of different educational issues, topics, etc. |
| Awareness of the Limitations of Knowledge | Articulate an awareness of taken-for-granted assumptions associated with the research process as a political and ethical activity with the aim to understand their own positionality and its effects in relation to their practice.
Critically understand the values and assumptions underlying the politics of knowledge production, including how frames, filters, biases and larger social and political contexts shape the production and legitimation of knowledge.
Critically understand the ethical and professional implications of educational research in general and of their own choices in understanding and applying research in their specialization area, with particular attention paid to ethical approaches associated with researching vulnerable groups such as indigenous communities and those in Global South communities. |
| Autonomy & Professional Capacity | Understand and articulate the values that guide research and personal practice as an educational practitioner and leader.
Demonstrate curiosity, intellectual independence and passion for understanding the importance of research and for continued professional learning to improve practice.
Demonstrate the ability to work both independently and collaboratively with others, as well as develop attitudes of openness and respect for others.
Grow personally and professionally through discussion and dialogue with others, as well as through engagement with educational research. |

Mode of course delivery and technology requirements:
This is a fully online course. You will require regular internet access (high speed is recommended); a computer that enables connection to outside websites (flexible firewall); has multimedia playback capabilities (video/audio); and is capable of running a recent version of Internet Explorer, Safari, or Firefox. You will also require an audio headset and microphone for computer. A web cam is optional.
Course Time Commitment Expectations: I recommend between 6 - 8 hours per week of course work, including reading the articles, posting responses and engaging in online discussions.
Course Texts / Materials

Below, the text will be referred to as Engaging in AR. It is available online as an e-book at http://www.brusheducation.ca/catalog/arts-education-social-sciences/books/engaging-in-action-research

All other reading materials will be available through OWL for course students.

PART I. INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: RESEARCH METHODOLOGIES

Week 1) Introduction to Education Research: Quantitative and Qualitative Research Methods (Week of Sept 6-11th)

Readings:
- Chapters 1 & 2: “Introducing Action Research” (Engaging in Action Research)
- Fairbrother, G. (2014). Quantitative and qualitative approaches to comparative education. In M. Bray, B. Adamson & M. Mason (Eds.) Comparative education research: Approaches and methods (pp. 71-93). Hong Kong, China: CERC/The University of Hong Kong and Springer.

Week 2) Qualitative Educational Research: Case Studies (Sept 12-18th)

Readings:

Week 3) Qualitative Educational Research: Ethnographies and the Concept of Culture (Sept 19-25th)

Readings:

Week 4) Using Video Technologies in International Pedagogical Research (Sept. 26- Oct 2nd)

Readings:

Conducting Site-Based Research in Intercultural Settings, 9424A-650.

Week 5) Quantitative Research: Using Large Scale Data in International Education Research (Oct 3-9)

Readings:

PART II. DESIGNING YOUR FIELD BASED ACTION RESEARCH STUDY

Week 6) Overview of Research Design: Developing Research Questions and a Research Plan (Oct 11-16)

Readings:
• Chapter 3 (Starting a Research Plan), Chapter 4 (Completing a Literature Review), Chapter 5 (Designing your Research Method); Chapter 6 (From Plan to Action) in Engaging in Action Research. (pp. 23-72).

Week 7) Overview of Research Design: Collecting and Analyzing Data (Oct 17-23)

Readings:
• Chapter 7 (Managing your Research Project); Chapter 8 (Collecting your Data); Chapter 9 (Analyzing your Data) in Engaging in Action Research. (pp. 73-125).

Week 8) Knowledge Dissemination/Mobilization (Oct 24-30)

Readings:
• Chapter 10 (Reporting your Findings) and Chapter 11 (Pacing Yourself) in in Engaging in Action Research. (pp. 127-145)

PART III. ETHICAL AND SOCIO-CULTURAL ISSUES IN CONDUCTING INTERNATIONAL/INTER-CULTURAL EDUCATION RESEARCH

Week 9) Self-Positioning and Self-Reflection in Intercultural/International Education Research (Oct 31- Nov 6)

Readings:

Conducting Site-Based Research in Intercultural Settings, 9424A-650.
• Potts, P. (2007). The place of experiences in comparative education research. In M. Bray, B. Adamson & M. Mason (Eds.). Comparative Education Research: Approaches and methods (pp. 63-81). Hong Kong, China: CERC/The University of Hong Kong and Springer.

Week 10) Methodological Challenges in Carrying out Intercultural/International Research

(Nov 7-13)

Readings:

Week 11) Ethical and Socio-Cultural Challenges in Carrying out Research in ‘Developing’ Contexts (Nov 14-20)

Readings:

Week 12) Sharing Action Research Plans (Nov 21- 27th)

During this final week, you will all have an opportunity to showcase your Research Plan with others in the class via Elluminate on Sakai in two synchronous sessions. Further information on synchronous learning (i.e. computer requirements, general etiquette guidelines) will be made available. Students will NOT be penalized for not being able to attend synchronous sessions if they have reasonable grounds for their absence. In that case, we will find another way for you to share your research plans.

Voicethread https://voicethread.com/about/features/ 25%
Students will be expected to use Voice Thread on OWL throughout the course. VoiceThread is a web-based platform that enables teachers and students to upload images, video, or documents, record audio, video, or text comments, and then invite others to record comments as well. I will be using VoiceThread throughout the course as a way for you to provide your ongoing reflections to course material, lectures, and readings. Throughout the course, I will be posting questions for you to respond to and providing you with opportunities to provide critical reflections to the readings. A rubric will be posted on OWL with details about the assessment of VoiceThread contributions.

Critical Reflections
You will be expected to complete four reading reflections on course readings between weeks 2-5; 9-11. (The only exception is the reading in week 2 by McCulloch.) You cannot complete more than 1 reading from the same week. Each reflection is to be between 400-500 words or 1 single-spaced page in length. Upload all reading reflections to OWL (under the assignments link) on the Monday of the week they are due (by 9 p.m.) See details on OWL under the Assignment link.

Action Research Plan
All students are expected to conduct a small-scale research project as a part of their Capstone course in the International Education MPEd. This course is to prepare you do to that. To that end, you will be expected to create an Action Research Plan and present it to your colleagues through Elluminate. There are a number of components of this assignment, which I will provide details about on OWL in the folder “Action Research Plan”. Assessment rubrics will also be provided through OWL.

OWL login instructions and technical support information:
To access OWL, go to http://owl.uwo.ca Students may use Internet Explorer to access OWL; however, Firefox is the preferred browser for using OWL.

To log into OWL, students use their Western account credentials. The login is what precedes the “@uwo.ca” portion of students’ UWO email addresses.

- If you do not know your Western account, please contact edu.tech.support@uwo.ca for instructions.
- If you know your Western account, but you do not remember your password, please contact the ITS Helpdesk at 519 661-3800 (or x83800). You will need to provide your Western username, your 9 digit Student Number and they may ask for other identifiers such as birth date.
- If you require technical assistance in OWL, information addressing common problems is available on the OWL home page. Students can also contact the ITS Helpdesk at 519-661-3800.

Policy Statements:
Please see the “Policies” page of the Graduate Programs & Research website for further details on course and program policies: http://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/policies.html

Attendance: Students are expected to attend all classes. In the case of absence, instructors may assign additional course work. Normally, students who are absent from one-quarter or more of their classes will be assigned a grade of "F" (Fail), (Graduate Studies Subcommittee - December 3, 1999). As an example, most onsite half meet 12 times during a term, so students in these courses cannot miss more than two classes.

For online courses, participation will be determined and explained by the course instructor, and will reflect similar principles as attendance policy for on-site courses.

For online courses organized on a week-by-week basis, participation in each week’s discussion will be considered the equivalent of one onsite class. For online courses that are organized on a multi-week basis (i.e. module or unit), contributing to the discussion of each unit will be considered the equivalent of attending and participating in, the classroom discussion of a face-to-face class.

Students are encouraged to contact their instructor in advance of cases in which they will be unable to attend class on a regular basis.

NOTE: If you have an additional attendance policy, please confirm it with the Graduate Programs Office.
Language Proficiency: "Each student granted admission to Western must be proficient in spoken and written English. Students must demonstrate the ability to write clearly and correctly. Work presented in English in any subject at any level, which shows a lack of proficiency in English and is, therefore, unacceptable for academic credit, will either be failed or, at the discretion of the instructor, returned to the student for revision to a literate level. To foster competence in the use of the English language within their own discipline, all instructors will take proficiency in English into account in the assignment of grades.” A student who, after admission, shows an inadequate command of spoken or written English must improve his or her proficiency to the satisfaction of the graduate program or department.
http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/admission.html

Evaluation: Graduate students must maintain at least a "B" average in their program. Although only numeric grades are assigned by instructors in the Faculty of Education, the following alpha grade ranges are provided for your information.

A = 80% and above
B = 70% - 79%
C = 60% - 69%
F = Fail - less than 60%

The following guidelines for assigning grades are in effect at the Faculty of Education.
A: Reserved for those students whose work is excellent. Their work will contain an element of originality, creativity, or thoroughness. It will be well organized and expressed, and will reflect a particularly clear command of techniques and principles, incisive judgements, sound critical evaluations, and so on.
B: Assigned for proof of good competent work. A "B" grade indicates that a student has mastered the course material and can manipulate it, can write clear prose, can demonstrate an ability to critically evaluate and synthesize material, and can apply the course material to relevant situations or problems.
C: Assigned because a student does not meet one or more of the above criteria. Even though the student may be conscientious, he or she has not demonstrated a mastery of the graduate work in the course. A lack of mastery may include any number of characteristics such as an inability to write clearly, to research a topic adequately, to synthesize material, or to make basic judgements about relevance, and so on.
F: Glaring inaccuracy and confusion, little or no grasp of techniques and principles, trivial and irrelevant treatment of topics. In general, a failure to demonstrate the minimal knowledge and skills for effective work in the discipline.
INC: (Incomplete) An INC may be granted for a course where the student has not been able to complete the assigned work in the normal timeline due to exceptional circumstances. Permission to carry an INC must be sought from the Chair, Graduate Education before the end of the term. The INC must be completed by the end of the following term or a grade of F (FAIL) will be assigned. According to SGPS policy, NO exceptions will be granted to this rule.
A numerical grade submitted for an INC grade, or an F grade resulting for an INC, is final. The School of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies will not consider a subsequent revision of either such grade except on documented medical or compassionate grounds.

Instructors shall inform students, both in class and in the course outline, as to any policies and/or penalties concerning late submission of assignments.

IPR: (In Progress) assigned during preparation for Thesis or Directed Research Project or a half or full course which extends over two or more terms.

Statement on Academic Offences: Scholastic offences are taken seriously; a student guilty of a scholastic offence may be subject to the imposition of one or more penalties, ranging from reprimand to expulsion from the university, as well as criminal proceedings where appropriate. Students are strongly encouraged to review the appropriate policy document, and specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence: http://www.grad.uwo.ca/current_students/regulations/11.html

Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar [reproduced below]).

Plagiarism Checking: All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

Accessibility: The University of Western Ontario is committed to recognizing the dignity and independence of all students and seeks to ensure that persons with disabilities have genuine, open and unhindered access to academic services. Please contact me if you require course materials in an alternative format or if any other arrangements can make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact the Faculty of Education Graduate Programs Office at (519) 661-2099 and/or Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at (519) 661-2111 X 82147 for information about requesting academic accommodation, or go to the following website: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/rights_responsibilities.html
