GRADEDUC 9688B  Special Topics in Educational Policy Studies: Aims of Educational Leadership

Preference will be given to candidates who hold a PhD or EdD in Education(al) Administration and/or Leadership. Desirable additional qualifications would include publications, research grants or other demonstrable expertise in the course content concerned, leadership experience in schools, school systems or post-secondary education, and documented success teaching at the graduate level is an asset. Knowledge of computer technology is essential. This teaching assignment requires high speed internet access, a computer that is capable of running a recent version of Internet Explorer or Firefox for PC or Mac, and a webcam.

The calendar description of courses offered in the Graduate Programs is available at: http://www.edu.uwo.ca/programs/graduate-education/course_descriptions.html

More information on the Faculty is available at http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

Please note offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights, in accordance with the Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must apply using the application form available at http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/pdf/forms/limited-duties-app.pdf or from the Office of the Dean, Faculty of Education, Room 1003. In addition to the application form, candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability, to:
