

Assistant or Associate Professor Equity, Diversity, and Social Justice Education

The Faculty of Education, Western University, invites applications for a full-time faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor (tenure-track) or Associate Professor (tenure-track or tenured) in the area of equity, diversity, and social justice education. The effective date of the appointment will be July 1, 2022. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Candidates must have earned a completed Ph.D. degree in education or related field with a demonstrated record of excellence in research and teaching. We seek candidates whose research and teaching interests are focused on the field of equity and social justice education with extensive scholarship on race, anti-racism, equity, and anti-oppressive education.

Candidates must provide evidence of research excellence, which can be demonstrated by a record of relevant publications in equity, antiracism, and anti-oppressive education. The successful candidate will be expected to be able to teach in both our graduate and teacher education programs and your application should make explicit your alignment and willingness to each of these levels of programming. Candidates are encouraged to engage with one of our five research centres.

Western's Faculty of Education has been at the leading edge of education in Canada since 1962 and offers educational opportunities at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.
