GRADUATE EDUCATION PROGRAMS
NOTICE OF LIMITED-DUTIES APPOINTMENT

The Faculty of Education has unanticipated Limited-Duties (Part-Time) appointment to teach the following course during the Intersession period (May 1, 2021 to June 30, 2021):

OFFICIAL COURSE NAME:
GRADEDUC 9102L (650) Understanding 21st Century Teaching and Learning - (Job Ref# 21449)

Critical examination of the educative affordances, constraints, and re-shaping of educational environments created by the use of new technologies, online pedagogies, computational thinking, and multimodal delivery. Topics include online communities, equity of access, course blending, adaptive learning technologies, flipped classrooms, big data, and issues specific to online assessment.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Graduate Education Programs is available at https://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/program/mped/curriculuml-pedagogy.html.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

The successful candidate must have a) completed a PhD in Education or an EdD, with an emphasis in curriculum, teaching and learning, instructional design, or learning technologies,
b) demonstrated professional and or academic/research practice in the area of teaching and learning, instructional design, or learning technologies and c) thorough knowledge of the educative affordances of new and emerging technologies and multimodal teaching and learning in K–12 and other learning environments. Desirable additional qualifications would include a good publication record, research grant record or other demonstrable expertise in any curriculum field, curriculum leadership experience in schools or other learning environments, robust experience in teaching online, and documented success teaching at the graduate level.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. In submitting your application, candidates should include a letter of application to the Appointments Committee specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

For more information about this position, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca.

Course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

The closing date for applications is Friday, March 12, 2021.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca.
