NOTICE OF UNANTICIPATED LIMITED-DUTIES APPOINTMENT

The Faculty of Education has unanticipated Limited-Duties (Part-Time) appointment to teach the following course during the Winter period (January 1, 2019 to April 30, 2019):

PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM:

Winter ONLINE (January 1, 2019 – April 30, 2019):
Note: B – Winter term

GRADEUC 9497B (651) Understanding Curriculum Leadership for Educational Practice (ECE) – (Job Ref# 14679)

Focus on leading the development, implementation, and evaluation of positive curricular change. Emphasis on ways of conceptualizing curriculum leadership and advocacy and professional learning and reflective practice to promote equitable and enabling environments for all. The course will give students opportunities to explore curriculum leadership in their MPEd focus.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Graduate Education Programs is available at https://www.edu.uwo.ca/CSW/my_program/graduate-degrees/timetables_etc.html.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

The preferred candidate will have a completed Ph.D. in Education (Curriculum) or equivalent with an emphasis on an aspect of early years education relevant to the course, demonstrated research capabilities in curriculum in the early years (birth to age 8), thorough knowledge of relevant early years frameworks, and teaching experience in child care, K-3 or other early childhood education settings. Previous graduate teaching is an asset. The successful applicant will bring academic and professional strength and collaborative abilities to the position.
Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. In submitting your application, candidates should include a letter of application to the Appointments Committee specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Please note course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

For more information about this position, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The closing date for applications is November 2, 2018.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.
