GRADEDUC 9515B (001 & 002) Strategic Processes for School Improvement Planning – (Job Ref# 17273)

Examine how school leaders aim to achieve school improvement through a focus on the development of effective and practical school plans. Explore the role of evidence-based decision making, the use of data-driven strategies, the application of monitoring strategies and the concept of implementation fidelity.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Graduate Education Programs is available at https://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/program/mped/isl-ppm.html.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

The successful candidate will hold a graduate degree (preferably EdD or PhD) in Educational Leadership. Proven experience as a leader in the K-12 school system is essential. Relevant experience working within an IB school is necessary. Graduate teaching experience is preferred.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. In submitting your application, candidates should include a letter of application to the Appointments Committee specifying qualifications for the position.
and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

For more information about these positions, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Please note offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

The closing date for applications is August 13, 2019.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.
