TEACHER EDUCATION

NOTICE OF UNANTICIPATED LIMITED-DUTIES APPOINTMENT

The Faculty of Education has unanticipated Limited-Duties (Part-Time) appointment to teach the following course during the Fall/Winter period (October 1, 2017 to February 28, 2018):

Fall/Winter – Year 2 (October 16, 2017-February 1, 2018) On-Site:

EDUC 5476-001 Investigating Urban Schools: A Case Study Approach (Job Ref# 11273)

This course is an introduction to a case study approach for investigating equity issues in urban schools. Teacher Candidates identify appropriate topics and investigative methods, and reflect upon their findings in terms of relevant literature and their own experiences in urban schools.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Teacher Education Program is available at https://www.edu.uwo.ca/teacher-education/docs/2017-18coursedescAug.pdf.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

The successful candidate will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must hold qualifications related to equity in schools and have a demonstrated record of performance in teaching. Preference will be given to candidates who hold at least a master’s degree or specialist’s certificate.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. In submitting your application, candidates should attach a letter of application addressed to Dean Vicki Schwean specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.
In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

For more information about this position, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The closing date for applications is September 23, 2017.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.

Note: Recent Western graduates who are foreign nationals may be eligible to work on campus. Please refer to the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website under Post-Graduation Employment at http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp.
