For more information about these positions, please contact Evangeline Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or phone (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must have qualifications appropriate to the course(s) for which application is being made. For specific details on the qualifications criteria, please review the job advertisement(s) available on the Human Resources website under Working at Western at: <http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html>.

Western, like many postsecondary institutions in Canada, is moving beyond sole reliance upon Indigenous self-identification in its hiring processes. This is to safeguard against the use of incorrect, incomplete, or misleading information in circumstances in which a candidate has made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership. Candidates who are invited for an interview or who are short-listed, and who have made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership for material advantage at Western, including where required or preferred for the position, will be asked to have their declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership affirmed through a relational accountability process, led by the Office of Indigenous Initiatives (OII), that is consistent with Indigenous ways of knowing, being, and doing. Please contact the OII directly for details on the affirmation processes: <https://indigenous.uwo.ca/>. The policy can be viewed at: POLICY 1.58 - Affirming Declarations of Indigenous Citizenship or Membership at Western University.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at <http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html>. Interested candidates should submit a complete application package, in order as indicated below:

1. A Cover letter addressed to the Appointments Committee clearly specifying under the following headings:
 - Qualifications for the position and number of years teaching;
 - Areas of specialization and additional qualifications;
 - Evidence of successful teaching (P, J, I, S and Higher Education);
 - Availability to teach on-site during the day (8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.);
2. A curriculum vitae;
3. The names contact information of three qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.
