A critical approach to Social Studies education emphasizing social action and interactive, hands-on, constructivist learning. Skills, attitudes, and understandings that support Social Studies education, and effective pedagogical methods for teaching in increasingly diverse classrooms, are modelled and examined. Environmental and sustainability education is also addressed. 2 hours per week, second term, 0.25 credit.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Teacher Education Programs is available at https://www.edu.uwo.ca/csw/bed/_docs/course_descriptions/2023-24-course-descriptions.pdf.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: http://www.edu.uwo.ca.

For more information about this position, please contact Evangeline Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or phone (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must hold qualifications related to teaching Social Studies at the Primary/Junior and/or Junior/Intermediate level, have a demonstrated record of performance in teaching and have at least a master’s degree, specialist’s certificate or equivalent, as well as OCT certification.
Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html. Interested candidates should submit a complete application package, in order as indicated below:

1. A Cover letter addressed to the Appointments Committee clearly specifying under the following headings:
   - Qualifications for the position and number of years teaching;
   - Areas of specialization and additional qualifications;
   - Evidence of successful teaching (P, J, I, S and Higher Education);
   - Availability to teach on-site during the day (8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.);
2. A curriculum vitae;
3. The names contact information of three qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

The closing date for applications is: August 16, 2023.
