GRADUATE EDUCATION

NOTICE OF LIMITED-DUTIES (PART-TIME) APPOINTMENT

The Faculty of Education, Western University, invites applications for Limited-Duties (Part-Time) faculty appointment to teach the following course during the Winter period (January 1, 2027 to April 30, 2027):

Winter – ONLINE (January 1, 2027 - April 30, 2027)

GRADEDUC	Section	Course Name	Job ID
9735	650, 651	Analysis of Teaching and Learning for Practitioners	43593

Course Information: Promotion of knowledge required for pedagogical leadership through a study of constituents and effects of classroom curriculum and the commonplaces therein. Students will be encouraged to locate and contemplate their own problems of practice in relation to the course content.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Graduate Education Programs is available at <https://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/index.html#program>.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: <http://www.edu.uwo.ca>.

For more information about this position, please contact Evangeline Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or phone (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The successful candidates will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates for this position must hold a PhD or equivalent in Curriculum Studies or a strongly related field. Preference will be given to applicants who have demonstrated scholarly and practical curriculum experience, relevant publications and demonstrated record of performance in teaching at the graduate level. Demonstrated knowledge and experience successfully designing and teaching in the online environment is essential for this position.

In addition to the application materials, candidates should attach a letter of application addressed to the Appointments Committee specifying qualifications for the position, a statement of curriculum and pedagogy experience, and plans for advancing equity, diversity, and inclusion in their teaching. Interdisciplinary experience is an asset.

In this role, successful candidates are expected to:

- Collaborate with Program Manager, EdD, Academic Coordinator, and faculty colleagues for course development, asynchronous learning design, and sharing resources.
- Mentor and guide students through scaffolded course activities to support student success with a student-centred and adult learning approach.
- Engage in instructor and university orientation activities for consistency of scaffolded program delivery, assessment experiences and assurance of secondary research approaches.
- Demonstrate success in supporting graduate student learning, particularly academic writing, as well as the ability to identify learning challenges and teach students from diverse backgrounds.

Western, like many postsecondary institutions in Canada, is moving beyond sole reliance upon Indigenous self-identification in its hiring processes. This is to safeguard against the use of incorrect, incomplete, or misleading information in circumstances in which a candidate has made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership. Candidates who are invited for an interview or who are short-listed, and who have made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership for material advantage at Western, including where required or preferred for the position, will be asked to have their declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership affirmed through a relational accountability process, led by the Office of Indigenous Initiatives (OII), that is consistent with Indigenous ways of knowing, being, and doing. Please contact the OII directly for details on the affirmation processes: <https://indigenous.uwo.ca/>. The policy can be viewed at: POLICY 1.58 - Affirming Declarations of Indigenous Citizenship or Membership at Western University.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at <http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html>. In submitting your application, candidates should include a letter of application addressed to the Appointments Committee specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

The closing date for applications is: July 23, 2026.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.
