We acknowledge that Western University is located on the traditional lands of the Anishinaabek (Ah-nish-in-a-bek), Haudenosaunee (Ho-den-no-show-nee), Lūnaapéewak (Len-ahpay-wuk) and Attawandaron (Add-a-won-da-run) peoples, on lands connected with the London Township and Sombra Treaties of 1796 and the Dish with One Spoon Covenant Wampum. With this, we respect the longstanding relationships that Indigenous Nations have to this land, as they are the original caretakers. We acknowledge historical and ongoing injustices that Indigenous Peoples (e.g. First Nations, Métis and Inuit) endure in Canada, and we accept responsibility as a public institution to contribute toward revealing and correcting miseducation as well as renewing respectful relationships with Indigenous communities through our teaching, research and community service.

Orange Shirt Day

September 30 is Orange Shirt Day, a national statutory holiday recognizing the intergenerational trauma caused by the Canadian government’s attempted cultural genocide of Indigenous peoples through the implementation of residential schools. On this day, we are called to reflect on the need for reconciliation, identify the ways in which political, legal, and educational systems continue to oppress Indigenous peoples, and take action towards justice. Unsure where to start? See the resources below for inspiration.

In February, all Year 1 candidates have one week of class replaced with a week of professional development. This “Conference Week” is organized by the ESC. Teacher candidates will choose from a variety of sessions to create their own custom schedule.

Important Information:
- 2022 Conference Week will be from February 22-25
- It is mandatory to meet the minimum attendance for the event (make sure you're available and present)
- This is a great opportunity for Year 1 candidates to learn more about their passions to form their teaching!

Self Care Toolkit

Why is a Self Care Toolkit important?
As we prepare for back to school, both as students and teacher candidates, there will be an elevated need for a "toolkit" of strategies to draw on as needed to avoid burnout. Everyone's self care is different, but try incorporating some of these ideas into your week!

1. Make time for "Wellness Wednesday"
   When planning out your week, make sure to set aside specific time to do at least 1 thing you love!

2. Learn how you best cope with stress
   Make a playlist that calms you down, use circular breathing, or try the 5-4-3-2-1 method to de-stress.

3. Find the outlets that work for you
   Release pent up feelings through journaling, talking to friends, exercising, or outlets unique to you!

4. Rely on your Support System
   Above all else, remember that you're not alone. It takes a lot of strength to ask for help!
   If you are in a crisis, resources can be found here.
