The Althouse Press at Congress 2012
From May 26—June 2, The Althouse Press re-affirmed its place as the foremost and finest ‘boutique academic press’ in Canada. Read more

Faculty Member Shortlisted for Writing Prize
Cornelia Hoogland’s short non-fiction piece, "Sea-Level," was shortlisted from over 3000 entries in this year's Canada Writes competition. Read more

BEd Graduate Represents Canada in the Olympics
Hilary Stellingwerff participated in the Olympics in London, England as a middle distance runner. Read more

Congratulations to Graduates
See the full lists of the graduates from the Preservice program, PhD program, and MEd programs. See also this year’s Faculty of Education award winners.

Upcoming Events
Orientation Dates
- New faculty members: August 22, 12:30pm-4:30pm
- Teacher Candidates (BEd/DipEd): August 30 & August 31, 9:30am-3:30pm Read more
- MEd Students (General): September 05, 7pm
- MEd Students (Counselling Psychology): September 04 to 07, 9am-4pm
- PhD Students: September 05 (all day)

Two SAKAI information sessions will be held in the new eLearning & Technology Centre (1138) at 1:30pm on the following dates:
- Wednesday, August 22
- Thursday, August 23

A Trilliam Foundation Event on health and social services for women and children in need, sponsored and organized by CREVAWC, will take place on August 31

Welcome to Western!
The Faculty of Education welcomes Dr. Pam Bishop from the University of Calgary, who will assume the new role of the Director of Professional Programs.

The Faculty also welcomes Cindy Capizzano to the Faculty of Education, where she joins the Graduate Office in the role of Receptionist.

Awards and Announcements
PhD Candidate Allison Segeren was awarded the Joseph-Armand Bombardier Canada Graduate Scholarships Program-Doctoral Scholarships & SSHRC Doctoral Fellowship.

PhD Candidate Sean Mattys was awarded a SSHRC Public Outreach Grant for his project, SPARK! A High School Mentorship Program.

Kathleen Schmalz received an Ontario Arts Council Arts Education Project Grant, which she used to pair school classes with professional artists and to mentor teachers using the Ontario Visual Arts Curriculum. The exhibition “Community’s choice: Guelph’s Favourite Buildings” runs from June 22nd to Nov. 4th at the Guelph Civic Museum. Read More

Julie Byrd Clark made two presentations in Berlin, Germany in August at the Sociolinguistics Symposium 19 conference. One presentation was selected to be included on a distinguished panel/symposium on urban multilingualism and international mobility. She also traveled to the universities of Turku and Helsinki, Finland, and presented on multilingualism and multiculturalism in the Canadian context to students and colleagues of the Department of Teacher Education.

In the News
PhD graduate Bill Irwin was quoted in the Kingston Whig Standard on issues relating to his dissertation research. An article by Irwin and Professor Mark Seasons is forthcoming in the Canadian Journal of Urban Research. Read more

Send news and events to edu-comm@uwo.ca